

Supporting Tools to Prevent Emotional Dysregulation Events in Students with Autism

Additionally: Educational robotics, serious games & virtual reality applications

Date: 12/07/2023

Location: NTU - Clifton Campus

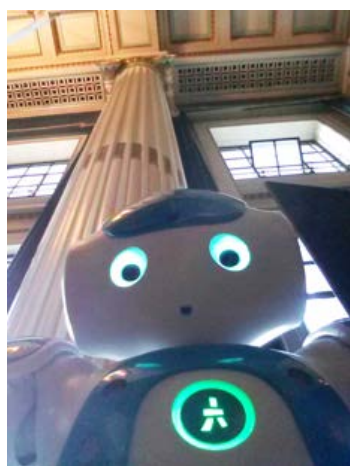

Time: 9:30am - 3:00pm (GMT)

Free Access, Parking, Hot/Cold

Drinks & Lunch provided

Are you a:

- Mainstream Teacher
- Special Education Teacher
- SENCo
- SEN/Autism Professional

Featuring:

- Guest talk - Dr Luran Doak - Senior Lecturer in the Institute of Education at NTU. Luran specialises in Special & Inclusive Education.
- AI-TOP - Using AI and mobile technologies to detect engagement and emotional dysregulation events in children with ASD. Demos of tools and outputs.
- Demos of the use of robots in special education featuring Pepper Robot
- Student developed serious games for independent living skills
- Virtual Reality applications in education

At the event:

- Sessions will be run as a series of short presentations, each followed by demonstrations and discussion allowing participants the chance to pose questions and get answers.
- Full buffet lunch and hot/cold drinks provided!

Contact

Prof. David Brown
Nottingham Trent University

 david.brown@ntu.ac.uk
 register at: EventBrite
 <https://www.facebook.com/isrg.ntu>